

AllAboutJazz.com

PHILIP CATHERINE – CONCERT in CAPBRETON

(Release date April 21, 2010 – Dreyfus Jazz)

Philip Catherine, guitar
Enrico Pieranunzi, piano
Hein Van de Geyn, double bass
Joe La Barbera, drums

On this stunning live recording from Capbreton Island, Philip Catherine, one of jazz music's most sonically and melodically expressive guitarists, is joined by a stellar cast of musicians - Italian piano great Enrico Pieranunzi, drummer Joe La Barbera and bassist Hein Van De Geyn. Together they create a dreamy, unified sound that takes familiar music to new, exotic places. If you're a Philip Catherine fan, you will need this recording, and haven't heard him before - this album will have you hooked. Charlie Mingus once called Philip the "young Django," and he performed regularly with Stephane Grappelli - he is a true gypsy jazz treasure, and this is one his major achievements.

